

BY THE LORD DEPUTIE AND COUNCELL

254

ARTHVRE CHICHESTER.

Whereas Richard Lord Baron of Deluin lately apprehended and committed to the Castle of Dublin for high treason, sufficiently discovered and made manifest unto vs the Lord Deputie and Councell, being guiltie in his owne conscience of the said treason, hath on Saturday night last, being the one & twentieth of this present Moneth, by practise of some of his Seruants, & negligence or corruption of his Keeper, broken prison & escaped out of the said Castle of Dublin, which escape in it selfe is also high treason: wherupon we are wel assured that he will withdraw himselfe into some place where he conceauneth he shall bee relieued & protected for a time, butill hee may secretly flic out of this Kingdome, wee doe therefore in his Maiesties name proclaime and publish, That all and euerie person or persons, who shall from henceforth receiue, relieue, or abette him the said Baron of Deluin, or any of his Confederates and adherents, by giuing or supplying vnto him or them any Meate, Drinke, Money, Armes, Horse, Munition, or any other aduise, succour, or comfort whatsoever, shall be reputed and adiudged high Traytors.

wherefore we doe also in his Maiesties name, straightly charge and commaunde all his Maiesties loyall Subjects, vpon their dutie of alleageance, not onely to forbear to receiue or relieue him the saide Baron of Deluin, or any of his Confederates or Adherents, but also to make diligent search and enquire in what place the said Baron or his Confederates shall from time to time lurke or be receiued, & by all means possible to apprehend and take the bodies of them the said Baron and his Adherents, and them to bring or cause to be brought vnder safe custodie vnto vs, for which such reward shall be giuen as shall be answerable to so good a seruice.

And wee doe further in his Maiesties name declare and publish, That none of his Maiesties good and loyall Subjects shall by pretence or colour of the prosecution of him the said Baron and his Adherents, be any way molested, troubled or impeached in their Bodies, Lands, or Goods, as long as they continue in their loyaltie and due obedience to his Maiestie, and the Lawes of this Kingdome. Given at his Maiesties Castle of Dublin the 23. day of Nouember, 1647.

God saue the King.

Thom. Dublin Canc.	D. Thomond.	Rogerus Midenfis.	Thom. Ridgeway.	Rich. Wingfield.
James Ley.	Nich. Walsh.	Hump. Wynch.	Anthony Sentleger.	Oliuer St. Iohn.
Henry Harrington.	Geff. Fenton.	Henry Power.	Garret Moore.	Fraunces Stafford.
Rich. Cooke.	James Fullerton.	Adam Loftus.

Printed at Dublin by Iohn Franckton, Printer to the Kings most excellent Maiestie in the Realme of Ireland. Anno Dom. 1647.